2018 FOI Loudonville Rally

BY CHARLES WOTRING

The FIxible Owners International Loudonville, Ohio rallies began many years ago, long before the day of the internet. The true founders of FOI were Betty and Richard "Dick" Marsan, who lived in northeastern Massachusetts. Their first conversion was a school bus. Later they acquired a retired FIxible "Clipper" style coach manufactured new for a fire department in their home area. When the Marsan's got the coach it had a fire-engine bell, big red flashing lights and a siren.

Its designed purpose was to be a support vehicle to accompany the fire trucks and firemen while attending fire calls. Dick was very handy with tools, being a body man and he was teaching body shop in a high-school vocational facility at the time. He did the entire conversion and maintained the coach himself until a few years ago, when he sold it to someone in Australia who wanted a FIxible Clipper. Betty and Dick are alive and well having moved from their retirement home in Florida back to Massachusetts.

Belonging to Family Motor Coach Association (FMCA) and reading about rallies, Dick wondered to himself why there was no FIxible group or FIxible rallies. So
